

San Fernando Valley Yacht Club
Patriots' Day Race:
September 5, 2009

The 2009 SFVYC Patriots' Day Race drew 7 entries on a bright, sunny day. The wind was excellent, at 12-13 knots, but the sea was very choppy later in the afternoon, perhaps due to the hurricane off Baja.

The race started off the Venice Pier, with a clockwise triangular course to a windward mark, the Santa Monica Bell, and then a return to the start line. The course then went once more to the windward mark, then to the South entrance to Marina del Rey and up the channel to finish at Burton Chace Park. All the racers took their own times at the finish.

The race committee, in Segundo Amor, consisted of PRO Dave Osborn, Chuck and Kay Russell, and Gordon Glattenberg and Elyse Ruth.

The post-race party was held at the South Coast Corinthian Yacht Club, who again provided great food and hospitality.

Distance: 9.2 nautical miles

Start 1200
