

APRIL FOOLS' RACE: APRIL 17, 2010

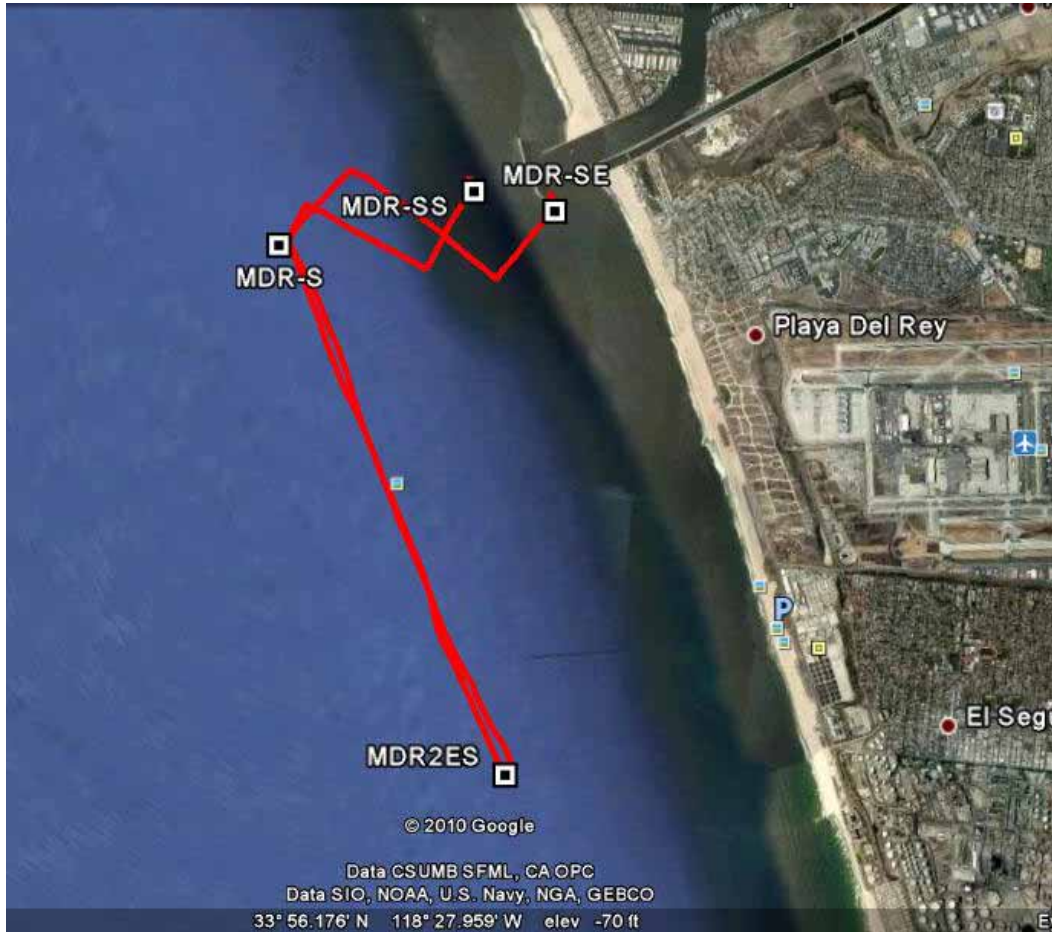

With favorable winds and a great course, 12 boats started the 2010 SFVYC April Fools' Race. Adolf Liebe was PRO for the event and established an interesting course with a little sailing to weather, some nice reaching legs, and a downwind run to the finish. The start was a little different, with a rabbit start with Might as Well the rabbit. There seemed to be a little confusion at the start, but no one hit the rabbit. Since there was only one class, the ASMBYC cruiser handicap system was used with the race boats taking a huge adjustment to their handicap. The faster boats averaged over 5 knots in about 8 knots of breeze.

After the race most all the racers attended the post-race party at the SCCYC, where trophies (prizes) were handed out. Special thanks to Bruce Fleck for the great tacos!

Start time: 1200

Distance; 7.17 nautical miles
