

SEASONAL TUNEUP RACE
MARINA del REY, CA
FEBRUARY 13, 2010

The race was sailed on a beautiful winter day, warm and sunny, with a fair nine knot wind from offshore. The starting line was seaward of the Venice Pier, the course led windward to the EE mark, then around the Santa Monica buoy, and ended in the south entrance to the Marina del Rey Harbor, a total of 8.9 miles. Eight boats made the tour in good time, dropping their spinnakers before turning to the finish line. The sailors met afterwards at the South Coast Corinthian Yacht Club's club house to refresh.

The committee boat, Bruce Warner's Beryl, a Catalina 30, with a fine crew of sailors (Rick on the helm, Chris, Lee, Tom, and Dave Osborn) was at the start and finish lines, cheerful and efficient all day. Billy Hulting calculated the results, which were checked by Dave Osborn.

Start Time: 1200 hours
